VOL. CXXXI—74. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 1915. PRICE, 2 CENTS

RUSSIAN ARMY MEETS REVERSE

Forces of General Ivanoff Beaten Back From Czernowitz

WAR OFFICE SILENT

No Officials Information of Setback of Muscovites—Withdrawal May Have Been Tactical.

London, March 27—A Russian army at the eastern end of the Austrian battle line has suffered a reverse according to reports received here today.

While two Slav armies have pressed forward successfully to invade Hungary, the forces of General Ivanoff have been beaten back from Czernowitz, capital of Bukowina, and driven several miles north of the Pruth.

A semi-official statement from Vienna today reported that the Russians have been thrown back across the Pruth and driven nearly to the Dneister, twenty miles to the north.

While advices from neutral sources do not confirm this a Bucharest report received here from Rome today indicated that General Ivanoff had been compelled to evacuate Sadagora north of the Pruth, and had been pressed back against the frontier of Russian Bessarabia.

The Petrograd war office for several days has remained silent about the progress of the small Russian force that crossed the Pruth on pontoon bridges and pressed in on Czernowitz from the west. A Bucharest dispatch today reported that the Austrian garrison at Czernowitz, by a quick march threw a superior force against the Russian invaders, drove them back across the Pruth, and then crossed the river themselves taking up a position on the north bank.

Other Austrian forces crossed the Pruth north of Czernowitz, defeated the main army of General Ivanoff at Sadagora, and pressed the Russians back for several miles. This movement probably explains reports from English correspondents in Roumania that the Russians "evacuated Czernowitz."

No official confirmation has been received here, but military experts admitted that a withdrawal of the Russians striking against Bukowina may have become necessary at this time.

VIRGINIA'S PAVILION

San Francisco, March 27—Patriotism was the keynote to the dedication of Virginia's pavilion at the panama Pacific Exposition which took place yesterday. As in the building, which is a faithful representation of the historic Mount Vernon, the home of George Washington, so in the dedicatory ceremonies and the celebration afterward history and the spirit of patriotic pride played an important part.

"Dixie" and "Maryland" were the two principal tunes played by the band. "America," however, also had an important place on the musical program.

Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, of Virginia and Washington, D. C., daughter of an old Southern family was the official hostess, while John T. Lewis, of Virginia, commissioner from his State, was the orator of the day in behalf of his government.

Addresses also were delivered by [illegible]om Bailey Lamar, United States [illegible]ssioner; Gov. Hiram W. John[illegible] California, and Mayor James [illegible] San Francisco. A [illegible]s presented by offi[illegible]position to the Vir[illegible]on, commemorative of [illegible]ibution to the exposition

NEWS OF THE DAY

J. P. Morgan has started on a trip to Europe is in the interest of the American banking world, to extend credits to the Allies—England, France and Russia—of about $500,000,000.

French aviators raided the Zeppelin sheds of the Germans at Frescaty, within the borders of Germany yesterday, bombarded the railway station at Metz and the barracks at Strassbourg, and escaped in a hail of shells and gunfire.

Russia will claim Constantinople at the termination of the war, whether it is taken by her own forces or by those of her allies. This assertion was made in Petrograd yesterday by a high official of the government.

Numerous attacks have been made on individaul Japanese in Shanghai and some Japanese shops have been forced to close. Fears are entertained that the Japanese, excited by the general election in Japan, may adopt reprisals.

OUTRAGES BY TURKS

U. S. Consul Reports More Violence At Urumiah

Tiflis, Russia, (via Petrograd), March 27—Turkish troops have committed further acts of violence at the American mission in Urumiah, Persia, according to a message received by the local viceroy from Gordon Paddock, the American Consul at Tabriz.

Mr. Paddock transmits a message from Missionary Robert M. Labaree at Urumiah to the effect that the Turkish Consul at Urumiah forced his way into the mission compound with a number of Turkish regular troops and removed some Assyrian Christain refugees who were then massacred.

The Turks also beat and insulted the American missionaries.

New York, March 27—All the men at Gulpashan, a large village near Urumiah, Persia, have been shot by Kurds, the women ill treated, an American missionary beaten and 65 refugees, taken from the French and American missions, have been hanged on gibbets erected in the mission yards, according to a cablegram received here yesterday by the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions.

The cablegram came from four native Christians in Tiflis, three of whom—and perhaps the fourth—were naturalized Americans. The message follows:

"Gulpashan destroyed. Its men shot, women ill treated. Sixty men taken from French mission compound and five from American mission compound hanged. Allen beaten. Hanging pole erected in French mission yard. Massacres imminent. Implore State Department that consul at Tabriz proceed Urumiah."

Six thousand dollars for relief at Urumiah was cabled yesterday to the American consul at Tabriz by the Persian war relief committee.

SUBMARINE LOCATED

F-4 Lies in 300 feet of Water—Crew Has Perished

Honolulu, March 27—The submarine F-4 was located late yesterday afternoon by the naval tug Navajo and the steamer Nakaala a short distance from where it disappeared shortly after 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

The rescuers succeeded in fastening cables to the submarine and it is now being towed to port. The F-4 is reported to be in about 300 feet of water, and oil continues to rise to the surface, which leads the rescue party to believe that all on board lost their lives.

The F-4 is reported by the rescuers to be resting on an even keel and right side up.

The rescue boats, after repeated efforts, found that it was impossible to drag the submarine F-4 into shallow water. A crane was sent for and as soon as it arrives an effort will be made to bring the wrecked boat to the surface.

AUSTRIA SUFFERS FROM ARMY FRAUDS

Inferior Food, Thin Cloth and Paper Boot Soles Furnished

MANY MILLIONS LOST

Rich Men Fill Jails—Budapest Facing Starvation—Women Wait in Streets All Night for Bread.

Budapest, March 27—Army contract frauds may be common to all belligerent countries but what has been done in Hungary in this regard beats all previous achievements. First of all the scandal began at Szogod, where nine of the most prominent wholesale dealers of the city were arrested for bribing a first lieutenant and one other officer who made it possible for them to supply the army with inferior foodstuffs for high prices. Those men were hardly under lock and key when it was found out that a number of the boot manufacturers, who were army contractors for 500,000 pairs of boots, had furnished them with paper soles. The soldiers wore them in dry weaweather ten days. In wet weather it was two days before the soles simply melted away from the tops.

A dozen other wealthy and influential manufacturers were arrested, this time in Budapest. Two days later a still more extensive fraud was discovered. This time a number of criminals were concerned, and they exceeded 100. Among them were officers, members of the municipal and legislative body and rich and influential men, manufacturers who drove up to the police station in private cars. These men were army contractors for khaki. They bribed officers in charge of the stores and delivered material dyed khaki color and of thin and inferior quality, worth three shillings a yard, at 13 and 14 shillings a yard.

Cells of the police headquarters are now filled with these men of wealth and position, so the ordinary daily criminal gang had to be installed elsewhere to make room for them. There are some among them who made more than $500,000 on the fraud and the sum involved exceeded $10,000,000. The papers are furious and the people urge the authorities to pass death sentence on the criminals.

Conditions here are growing worse and now one can see poor women by the hundreds standing in lines before bakers' and grocers' shops at nine o'clock in the evening to get a pound of flour or a loaf of bread, at eight the next morning. To see these weak sick, wretched women freeze all night in the street for a loaf of bread in the morning for which they have to pay an exorbitant price, makes one's heart almost stop beating. The only consolation offered them for all this is that Germany is not starving but that England, in consequence of the submarine blockade, is on the verge of starvation. There is no drama that could produce such an effort on an onlooker os these silent, suffering mothers.

DETECTIVE'S SLAYER CAUGHT

Philadelphia, March 27— Jacob C. Miller, the youthful robber who last night shot and killed a detective and probably mortally wounded another while they were taking him to police station, was arrested on the outskirts of the city yesterday while waiting to board a freight train for New York.

Three detectives came upon him suddenly before he could offer resistance, with the big automatic revolver with which he did the shooting last night.

At the City Hall the prisoner admitted the shooting and objected when some cigarettes were taken from him.

"I know you got me and I am going to the chair" Miller said, "but I want some smokes while I am waiting."

Miller is 21 years old and a former sailor in the navy.

NEW CRISIS NOW FACING TURKS

Porte Believed Ready to Listen to Peace Overtures.

BULGARIA WARLIKE

Italy, Failing in Negotiations With Austria, Seems Ready to Plunge Into Hostilities.

London, March 27—The Exchange Telegraph Company has received a dispatch from Athens saying that Field Marshal von der Goltz, who has been in Constantinople for months, representing German military interest, has left the Turkish capital for Sofia, Bulgaria. At the same time, General Liman von Sanders, the commander of the Turkish forces in Europe, has left Constantinople for Adrianople.

Field Marshal von der Goltz was the first military governor of Belgium. He was sent to Constantinople from Belgium the latter part of 1914 to advise in the matter of the conduct of the Turkish campaign. General von Sanders has been identified with the Turkish army for several years.

The departure of these two officers from Constantinople, one for Sofia, the capital of Bulgaria, and the other for Adrianople, the second most important city in European Turkey and not far from the Bulgarian frontier, indicates some sudden development in the Balkan situation which is causing Turkey concern. It may indicate a definite break has come at last, and that the power of the Germans in Turkey is over. That being the case, Generals von der Goltz and Liman von Sanders would naturally be recalled to Germany, and both would pass on their way through Adrianople and Sofia.

A break of this kind would be the signal for peace between Turkey and the allies, by means of which the Sultan and his ministers would seek to save their country from destruction, and Constantinople from falling into the hands of the Russians. The sudden leaving of the two officers is taken in some quarters to mean that Burgaria has precipitated a crisis and King Ferdinand is about to declare war on Turkey and strike suddenly, hoping to realize ambitions which failed at the close of the last Balkan war.

A dispatch under date of March 24 from Athens said the Turks were fortifying Lule Burgas, 45 miles southeast of Adrianople, and other places in the fear of a possible attack by Bulgaria. A Turkish army at Lule Burgas is being trained by German officers.

"THE BLACK BOX."

Seldom is so interesting and at the same time so logical a photoplay serial offered to the picture patrons as "The Black Box," now being shown at the Surprise. It is written by Phillip Oppenheim, who is undoubtedly the master of all mystery story writers. "The Black Box," in no scene approaches the impossible. Aided by the latest weapons of science, "Lunford Quest" becomes in truth a veritable Sherlock Holmes.

Austria Refuses to Cede Territory to Italy at Germany's Suggestion

Vienna, March 27—It has just been learned that the German emperor paid a secret visit to emperor Francis Joseph last week to urge him to cede Trentino and Trieste to Italy as the price of the latter's neutrality.

Rome, March 27—Negotiations for the cession of Austrian territory to Italy are reported to have been broken off and Italian intervention in the war is believed to be imminent. An attache of the French Embassy states that it has been learned that Austria has rejected the proposals made by Germany that the dual monarchy should surrender all its Italian districts.

The government has forbidden the issuing of passes permitting tourists to visit its military and naval bases and preparations have been made to impose the strictest censorship over all telepraph and mail service.

London, March 27.—A Rome dispatch dated March 24, received by the Central News by indirect route, says: Italy is in readiness for a general mobilization of the Italian Army. Seven complete classes are already under the colors.

"The departure of Austrian and German families is reported from all parts of Italy; it is estimated that about 3,000 persons of these nationalities have left Rome. Trains from Milian and Venice to the frontier are filled with Germans and Austrians, and large numbers of Hungarians have left Venice by steamer for Trieste."

SAYS INDIAN WON HIS WIFE

Pittsburgher Sues "Medicine Man" For $5,000 Damages.

Pittsburgh, March 27.—Suit was filed today by Emil Beyer, an attorney, against Red Key Loveless, a full-blooded Cherokee Indian "Medicine Man."

Beyer seeks to recover $5,000 heart balm for the alleged alienation by the Indian of the love and respect which his wife entertained for him.

In the suit filed by Beyer, the letter avers that while the Indian was treating his wife he became friendly with her, spending a great deal of time in her company. Beyer said the Indian abused the confidence placed in him by Mrs. Beyer and resorted to Indian drugs and medicants to "render her unappreciative of the dangers of his presence."

WARLIKE SCENES IN HAMPTON ROADS

Gun and Mine Companies at Their Posts During Last Night

FLASHING OF LIGHTS

Rumors That German Cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich is Preparing to Dash to the Ocean.

Newport News, Va., March 27—Simultaneously with the circulation of a rumor that the German cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich was making ready to leave this port last night, Fortress Monroe and Fort Wool, in the center of Hampton Roads, at the point where it empties into Chesapeake Bay, assumed an aspect of warlike activities. All the troops stationed at the forts were suddenly ordered to the barracks and the big guns and mine companies were sent to their posts. At 9:30 o'clock the engines around the guns were started to running; range finders were pressed into service, and all the searchlights at both forts were flashed on.

Subsequently, it was discovered that one United States submarine and three destroyers had arrived in the roads and dropped anchor between the two forts.

Colonel Ira F. Haynes, commandant of Fortress Monroe, went to the Portsmouth Navy Yard, it was said and the acting adjutant in charge said that he could make no statement concerning the unusual stir at the forts.

The searchlights were constantly played over Hampton Roads and Chesapeake Bay out towards the capes, and the scene was one of great excitement.

The powerful rays of the searchlights were thrown on every vessel passing the forts, making the ships more easily seen than even in broad daylight.

At 10:30 o'clock however, the Prinz Eitel was still tied up alongside a pier at the local shipyard, and had made no move as if to leave. After passing six guards, a newspaper man reached the lieutenant in charge, who said the cruiser would not leave last night, but would leave "some other night" Smoke was seen rising from the funnel, and it was evident that fire was up in at least one boiler.

Norfolk, Va., March 27.—The German auxiliary cruiser, Eitel Friedrich is apparently making preparations to sail and it is rumored that three foreign warships are now off the Virginia coast waiting for her to put in an appearance in outside waters.

The American submarines G-1 and G12, the destroyer Blarney and the tender Sonoma arrived unexpectedly yesterday afternoon and anchored between Fort Wool and Fortress Monroe.

Activity was noticeable aboard the Eitel Friedrich all day. Great volumes of black smoke poured out of her funnels, and her propeller churned the water for over an hour. Capt. Thierschens, her commander, declined to state when she would sail. He inquired regarding the weather conditions outside, and smiled when told that the forecast was either for rain or snow. His paymaster was instructed to pay all claims against the vessel, and the captain made a short talk to the crew. The captain declined to state whether repairs had been made to the ship's boilers and propeller shaft.

PASSOVER NEXT WEEK

Festival Commemorates Delivery of Children of Israel—Services in Synogague

The Jewish festival of Passover, which commemorates the delivery of the children of Israel from bondage, will begin next Monday night at 6:15 o'clock. Services appropriate to the occasion will be held in the Jewish Synagogue on north Washington street.

Passover (Pesach) is the seven days' festival observed by the Jew in the early spring in commemoration of the Exodus from Egypt. In ancient Jewish life, it was the first of the three Pilgrim festivals, upon which every male Jew was required to present himself in person at the central sanctuary in Jerusalem.

It is the great Independence Day of the Jew; the first event in his national history, an event whch became fundamental in all his thinking, too, as evidenced by the frequent reference to the great deliverance.

The festival in some countries is ushered in by a family servive, called the Seder, at which certain symbolic ceremonials are observed. Each participant—and the lowliest is privileged to sit at the table that night—is required to drink four cups of wine, in memory of the four promises made by the eternal to redeem Israel from bondage.

On the table are the unleavened cakes, the shin-bone of a lamb (roasted on the coals), commemorative of the Paschal sacrifice, a roasted egg, a mixture of apples and nuts, to symbolize the mortar wth which the "Egyptians made bitter the lives" of the fathers, and bitter herbs reminiscent of the unhappy days in Egypt.

In song and story, the tale of the oppression and the deliverance is rehearsed. Palms of thanksgivng strike the key-note of the happy occasion. The services, interrupted for the family dinner, closes with a number of merry folk-songs, expressive of the character of the celebration.

During the week of the festval, unleavened bread is eaten instead of the usual leaven.

THE OLD KELL HOUSE.

Structure Now Being Demolished Was Built a Few Years After the Revolutionary War.

The old house on the corner of Fairfax and Queen streets, which iis now being demolished was known for many years as the "Old Rough Cast House," and was the only example of that style of building in the town. It was built in 1798 by Cuthbert Powell, who occupied it as a residence and ware house. He and his brother, Lewis Powell, were engaged in the shipping business during the time of the French Spoliation, from which, like other Alexandria merchants, they suffered severely. Cuthbert Powell retired from business in 1812, to his estate of "Llangollen", in Loudoun county, and some years after represented the Loudoun District in the U. S Congress as a member of the old Whig party.

The old house here was owned by the Powell family until 1833, when it was sold by Dr. Wm. L. Powell and wife, to Isaac Kell, whose descendants have continued in possession to the present day.

If you fight trusting in the blood of the Lamb, depending upon the word of testimony and if you love not your life even unto death."

There will be no lenten services the coming Wednesday evening, as customary during the last six weeks, but special services, commemorating the death of the Saviour will be conducted on Good Friday morning at 11 o'clock.

ANTI-NARCOTIC REGULATIONS.

Every city in the country is experiencing the results of the enforcement of the law against the sale of opium and its bi-products and cocaine. Hospitals are being crowded with unfortunates who after using narcotics for years find them removed from their reach, and nervous breakdowns from such causes are becoming as common as winter colds. Alexandria is furnishing her quota of such victims, and while many who have been addicted to drugs are suffering silently, the effect upon others has been sad, resulting in temporary aberration of mind.

Nearly every week men and women, unable to procure what has become virtually an essential to their existence, makes their wants known by irresponsible conduct, often verging upon desperation.

The Harrison Drug and Narcotic Act, a national law, regulating the production, sale, dispensing, prescribing or giving away, opium, morphine, cocaine, and other habit forming drugs, and their compounds and derivatives, went into effect on the 1st instant. This act was passed by Congress and signed by the President last December, and seeks to control and regulate the sale and use of narcotiics and opiates generally. It is now unlawful to sell or dispense them except upon a physician's prescription; the law also prescribes the methods under which even the doctor can prescribe or purchase any of the habit-forming drugs. The prime object in view is to break up that most harmful, pernicious and growing habit of "doping." It is estimated that there are at least one-half million dope fiends in the United States. The confirmed "Dope Fiend" is truly a miserable object—depressed, restless, foreboding, a mental and physical wreck. It is impossible to conceive or paint the picture of, a more miserable specimen of humanity than the broken-down morphomaniac, broken down from every conceivable point of view. Moral perversion always strikingly marked, apprehensive, and undependable, a mental, physical, prematurely senile wreck.

Cocaine is even more pernicious than morphine, inasmuch as it adds to the list of horrors of the morphine user, strong criminal tendencies and a craving for alcohol. The "Coke Fiend" is wild, talkative, quarrelsome, aggressive and some times maniacal, with moral abandonment almost complete. Of course, it goes without saying, that these habits, sooner or later, completely unfit them for work, undermines and destroys the health and crushes out all moral responsibility.

WOMEN AND RELIGION.

Bishop Kilgo in an address at Norfolk this week expressed the thought that, as a rule, men are more religious than women, and he urged the members of the feminine gender to exert themselves to have a greater influence for good on the men.

This assertion of the bishop will be read with wonder, as it has been generally accepted that women de- more of their labor and [illegible] to [illegible] matters than [illegible] the commander. It [illegible] son, of one of [illegible] the Rolph, Jr., of [illegible] the bronze plaque w[illegible]t that a cials of the ex[illegible]t forth the ginia commissi[illegible]oes. their cont[illegible] that while a gos- success [illegible] realizing his respon- [illegible]s such a statement that p[illegible] every church congrega- there are five or six women to y man.

[illegible]re loth to adopt the views of [illegible]p. Kilgore, and there are some [illegible] the Bible concerning women [illegible]re suggestive.

[illegible]now that women were the last at the cross and the first at the tomb, and conditions do not appear to have changed much during the past nineteen centures, as we read that when Paul and Silas visited Philippi "on the Sabbath they went out of the city, where prayer was wont to be made, and spake unto the women which resorted hither." No men seem to have been in evidence on that occasion.

Some one wrote a tract years ago entitled "The Great Prayer Meeting." The writer called attention to certain words in the Apocalypse when celestial and terrestrial conditions shall have becme so appalling taht the kings of the earth and the great men and the rich men and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondsman, and every freeman will hide themselves in the dens and in the rocks in the mountains." Women it seems will be immune on this great occasion.

SUBMARINE DISASTERS.

A submarine belonging to the United States disappeared off Honolulu Thursday morning, carrying to a watery grave the entire crew. Oil floating on the waves told the sad story to those who started in search of the missing boat. Yesterday the ill-fated craft was located resting in the Pacific in three hundred feet of water.

Since the introduction of submarines in the navies of the world appalling accidents to such contrivances have from time to time been reported. In nearly every case they have gone to the bottom while engaged in practice. Seventeen have been lost, most of them while engaged in making dives.

Attempts by men to make conquest of the air have cost many lives. Daring aviators have been losing their lives for years in defying the laws of nature, while the toll of Father Neptune from those who make sea dives is also appalling.

OFFICIAL THE ALMS HOUSE.

Mayor Fisher's Communication to Council in Reference to the Institution.

Mayor Thomas A. Fisher sent the following message to the City Council last Tuesday night.

To the Honorable City Council,
Alexandria, Virginia,

Gentlemen:—

I enclose herewith letter for reading, not for official recording, in reference to our Poor and Workhouse. That I am in a measure officially connected with its operation is urged in extenuation for this communication.

The letters only add to or repeat in substance what was outlined in a paper referred to the Committees on Poor and Public property at your last meeting March 9th. This last mentioned paper was referred to in an editorial by a writer in the Alexandria Gazette of March 11th, under the caption, "Another Target." Those who read it knew it was from the pen of one who, in the language of the street, "does not go off half cock" on following every "wil of the wisp."

Referring to the report of the person who examined the jail and also the Poor House made to the State Board of Charities and Corrections the very conservative man and writer well states the case of the city. I will quote only one paragraph from the article. "The entire community will resent the attack upon our poor house, a large and comfortable structure which has frayed storms almost since the days when this part of the Old Dominion was ceded to the government for the purpose of forming part of the District of Columbia. It is a venerable structure which strangers passing in trains often take fr one of the baronial structures of colonial days. It has housed hundreds who at timse have become stragglers in the march of life and who have passed their declining years under the care of kind keepers, both male and female." No one can find fault with this apostrophe to the old building, and it is worthy of mention just here, that the grounds and surroundings in past years have been made much more attractive. Yet, it is none the less true that the building should not be patched, but repaired or additions made to it and conditions improved. Not that it should have every modern convenience or modern appliance necessitating a large outlay, which more pretentious buildings used for other purposes require, but conditions should be improved, and without further delay. As we have built fine engine houses, new schools, and one more about to be erected, contributed to a new hospital, and repaved some streets not absolutely needed, we certainly should pause long enough to do this much needed work at the Poor House, some of which we must do under the State laws. I am not unmindful of the fact that the change in our tax laws, the annexation of additional territory with its obligations, leaves us in some uncertainty as to our fiscal policy, yet, this will not deter me from insisting upon the subject matter of this communication receiving a full and fair consideration, and not be pushed aside for something less urgent.

Very respectfully,
THOMAS A FISHER,
MAYOR.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emley, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

Beer a Food Beverage

Beer is a good beverage by reason of its cereal ingredients. It gets its tonic properties from the hops.

Physicians recognize the fact that it is a food as well as a tonic and that is the reason why they frequently prescribe it. Beer contains nearly as much nourishment as milk and being predigested, it is readily assimilated.

But you want the right beer, one that is palatable and has an agreeable flavor.

MRS. JACKSON BURIED.

Lexington, Va., March 27.—Followed by Confederate veterans, Daughters of the Confederacy and Sons of Confederates besides numerous friends, the body of Mrs. Mary Anna Morrison Jackson was laid to rest yesterday morning in a vault beside the remains of her husband, Gen. "Stonewall" Jackson, beneath the bronze statue of the distinguished Southern general. The services were conducted by Dr. Alfred T. Graham, pastor of Lexington Presbyterian Church; Dr. James Power Smith, of Richmond, who was General Jackson's chaplain; Dr. D. H. Ralston, Mrs. Jackson's pastor in Charlotte, and Dr. James R. Howerton, of Washington and Lee University.

The body of Mrs. Jackson reached Lexington yesterday morning from Charlotte, N. C., and was taken to the Presbyterian Church, where a short religious service was held. Accompanying the body from North Carolina were Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Randolph Preston, the latter being Mrs. Jackson's granddaughter; Chief Justice Walter Clark, of Raleigh; Mr. Davidson and Colonel Harris. Six officers of the Fifth Coast Artillery of Charlotte acted as military escort.

Ten cadet officers of the Virginia Military Institute were detailed to act as pallbearers. The honorary pallbearers were members of the faculty of the Virginia Military Institute and Washington and Lee University, and the board of deacons of the Presbyterian Church. The floral tributes were numerous. Many of the pieces were from Confederate organizations.

MAN GROUND TO DEATH

Was Walking Up Track Reading Letter and Did Not Hear Train

Danville, Va., March 27—Lonnie Poff, a man employed in the Schoolfield Cotton mills, met a terrible fate Thursday evening when he was ground to pieces beneath the wheels of the Danville and Western Leaksville bound train in the plain view of a large number of men and women returning to their homes after the day's work.

Poff, who was aged twenty two years and a married man, was walking along the railway tracks between Washington street and Stokesland avenue on his way home from work, apparently deeply immersed in a letter, he was reading.

Steaming up behind him was the outward bound short local train, and ahead of him was coming a work train bringing laborers who are working on the track just over the borderline. Poff seeing that the work train was coming down the track on which he was walking, stepped across the rails right in the path of the passenger train, and while the engineer blew frantic blasts on his whistle and threw his breaks on, he was unable to avert the accident and he was horrified to see the form of the man disappear beneath the front of his engine.

The train was drawn up within a short distance and in its wake were found the mangled remains of the young man. There was little of the corpse found whole.

DESCLAUX CONVICTED.

French Officer Degraded And Sent to Prison For Stealing Army Supplies.

Paris, March 27.—Col. Francis Desclaux, former paymaster general in the French army, charged with stealing military stores, was convicted yesterday and sentenced to seven years' solitary confinement and military degradation. His name was ordered removed from the list of the Legion of Honor.

Mme. Beschoff, the wife of a German, in whose house the stolen goods were found, also was declared guilty by the court-martial and sentenced to two years' imprisonment. A soldier named Verges, who was accused of aiding in the thefts, was given a one-year sentence. All the other defendants were declared not guilty.

Desclaux, who was formerly chief secretary of Joseph Caillaux when Caillaux was Minister of Finance, was arrested in January, charged with stealing military supplies and sending them to the home of Mme. Beschoff, one of the best known dress makers in Paris. On account of the conspicuous political connections of Desclaux and the prominence of Mme. Beschoff the charges created a sensation.

When the court-martial assembled last Monday to try the accused one corner of the courtroom resembled an army storehouse. There were packages of coffee, tents, trophies of war, big shells, and helmets, making perhaps a ton of material. All these were found in the home of Mme. Beschoff and were brought before the court martial as evidence.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Plays Repeat Success—Complete Schedule to Date Announced —Debating Contest Results.

A huge success again were the plays given Thursday and last night at the Westminster Building under the auspices of the A. H. S. Literary Society. The Society glories in a lot of good money as a result, most of the amount realized from the plays last year having gone towards presenting the school with a Victrola and a lot of records. "A Musical Hodgepodge," and "Preserving a Smith" were played magnificently both nights to a packed house, a good account of them being given in yesterday's Gazette.

The greater part of the credit for the success of the performance is due to the tireless and preserving work of the two directors, Mr. E. B. Prettyman, a dramatic coach the equal of which few high schools can boast, and Mr. S. G. Blanton, the head of the musical side of the school. Mr. Prettyman spent long and hard hours in drilling the players and superintending the properties and scenery and without him, no matter what dramatic ability and talent were in the school, the play would not have been anywhere near the success that it was. Mr. Blanton also took in a lot of hard work in coaching the large number of voices that made up his chorus but his talent and ability turned the trick.

The outlook for the baseball season this year is very bright. Already the High School team has won one game and lost one, but the work of the players in both these games was encouraging and promises the winning of a large majority of the games scheduled this season. Western High School, which possesses one of the strongest teams in Washington, defeated the A. H. S. Wednesday afternoon at the Park 12 to 1. The A. H. S. used three pitchers giving each a chance to show their worth, the three being "Wobie" Haynes, "Dick" Nalls, and "Lefty" Raines, who all did good work in the box. "Tady" Schafer was on the receiving line.

Below is the complete schedule to date. The schedule is published again because of the addition of a number of more games during the week and other changes.

The debating contest for the medal to be awarded at commencement began last Saturday night and owing to the election of officers and other things, the regular program was put off until next meeting. The first subject was "Resolved, that the manufacturer of trademarked articles should fix their retail price." The affirmative was Miss Dolly Callahan and the negative, Jack Leadbeater. It resulted in a decision for the affirmative after much argument and witticism had passed back and forth. The second was "Resolved, that the U. S. Standing army should be increased," the affirmative being Tupper Barrett and the negative Tom Wattles. This debate also resulted in favor of the affirmative. The judges were the Rev. G. A. Luttrell, Mr. Nevell S. Greenaway, and Mr. Keith Carlin. Miss Callahan the first winner will be the affirmative on "Resolved, that paying a fare entitles the payer to a seat," and Tupper Barrett will be negative. This debate will take place on May 1, as will also "Resolved, that the Monroe doctrine should be abolished," between the winner of "Resolved, that unpaid convict labor is slavery and should be abolished," and "Resolved, that capital punishment should be abolished," which two debates take place April 10. The affirmative on the first subject is Miss Audrey Gaines, the negative, Waller Barrett, and second subject affirmative, Leo Pohl, negative, Miss Anna Haslett. The winner of the first debate will be the affirmative on the Monroe doctrine subject and the winner of the second the negative.

The election of officers took place without any balloting, every choice being unanimous. Every officer was re-elected, except that Jack Leadbeater, ex-treasurer, changer places with Tom Wattles, ex-vice president. Ashby Bladen is again president and Miss Dolly Callahan secretary.

Essays on "The American merchant marine: Its decadence; its restoration" have to be handed in on or before April 1. Only three or four essays are expected to be turned in by the Alexandria High School, three being the minimum number. Three prominent men of this city will act as judges and the winner among the Alexandria High School will be awarded the local gold medal. Then the winning essay will be turned in with the winners from the other Virginia high schools, and the best essay among these will be awarded the state medal. The prizes are being offered by the Newport News Chamber of Commerce through the State Board of Education. The winners will be announced at a later date.

Tonight the contest for the Pathescope moving picture machine offered by the Washington Post comes to an end. The local High School has made a splendid showing and is confident of wining a machine. The ten winners will be announced in the Post later.

The Girls' Athletic Association held at called meeting during the week.
